Remarks

Classic 1930s Craftsman Bungalow on the Greater Northside of Jacksonville, offered at an exceptional price point for buyers and investors who know value when they see it. This 3-bedroom, 1-bath home carries the kind of character you simply can't build today: beautiful exposed ceiling beams in the living room, a welcoming oversized front porch, and solid bones from an era when homes were built to last. Major system update already done for you: the entire home has been recently repiped with all-new plumbing throughout, a significant upgrade that gives you peace of mind from day one. Additional features include double vanity sinks in the bathroom, updated light fixtures, and a shed in the backyard with real workshop potential. Convenient access to I-95 and close to major shopping. Whether you're looking for an affordable primary residence or a rental income property in a growing market, this one checks the boxes at a price that won't last.
